Instead of just reading words...read THE WORD!

For the remaining summer, we are reading the book of Ruth from the Old Testament and Philippians from the New Testament.

This assignment will be turned in to your English teacher on the first day of school!